科目	英文寫作	本科總分	100 分

1. Write about a great class or course you had taken or audited in any English department in Taiwan. In addition to the course title, the instructor, and when and where you took the class, you may also explain how it was taught and why it was special, helpful, interesting or unforgettable to you, including the course materials, classroom activities, assignments, comments or words of wisdom from the teacher, your final grade, as well as what you had learned from this class. (50%; no more than 800 words)

2. According to your personal feeling or understanding, do you find any current or potential problems in some, if not most, of the English departments in Taiwan? If you were a chairperson or director of an English department in one of Taiwan's universities, what would you do to make your department a better or perfect one for students? In other words, what would you expect an ideal department of English to be? You may talk about courses, teachers, facilities, activities, exams, etc. Please be specific. (50%; no more than 800 words)
