To ban or not to ban visitors coming to Taiwan

As a response to the worsening pandemic, officials have planned to restrict visitors coming to Taiwan. This might be an effective way to prevent the spread of Covid-19 and its variants but this can be hard for people who are planning to travel during the New Year holidays. Tourism and business might also suffer due to the effects of the enforcement.

Please write down your opinions on what would be the best way to deal with the current situation, provide one or two cases to speak for the pro and con of the decision and conclude with a sound advice to the dilemma.
