D. Other information:

1. Students who are registered or who retain student status even if temporarily suspended cannot reapply for the same department and year at Soochow University. No student may seek to derive illicit benefit from his or her admission status. The University may bar offenders from attending examinations, revoke their admission status and/or dismiss them from the school. No dispute of such a ruling will be entertained.
2. In the event that it is discovered with respect that an admitted international student's entry qualifications are the product of cheating or fraud, or that submitted documents have been forged, altered, borrowed, amended, used illicitly or otherwise do not have legal standing, the student may be dismissed or see his/her admission status revoked, and no certificate of study will be issued. Should such a violation be discovered after completion of a student's studies, the University may revoke any certificates issued and publicly announce the cancellation of the violator's graduate status, and all legal responsibilities incurred shall rebound to the charge of the violating party.
3. Should any information or document submitted by the test taker is false, he/she shall be forbidden from taking the test, have his/her offer rescinded, or be expelled from the University. Documents submitted by the test taker during registration and enrollment will not be returned. To verify the education background and/or credentials submitted by the test taker, the University may request that the test taker submit additional documents within a specified period of time. The test taker's failure to do so shall be considered as consent for the University to verify such education
