D. Other information:

1. Students who are registered or who retain student status even if temporarily suspended cannot reapply for the same department and year at Soochow University. No student may seek to derive illicit benefit from his or her admission status. The University may bar offenders from attending examinations, revoke their admission status and/or dismiss them from the school. No dispute of such a ruling will be entertained.
2. If the University discovers that an applicant does not meet the eligibility requirements, or that any documents submitted by a foreign student involve impersonation, misrepresentation, forgery, alteration, or examination fraud, appropriate actions will be taken depending on the timing of the discovery. Should such misconduct be identified prior to registration, the applicant's admission will be revoked. If the violation is discovered after registration, the student will be expelled from the University, and no academic certificates or related documents will be issued. In cases where the misconduct is uncovered after graduation, the University will, in accordance with the law, revoke the student's graduation status and degree certificate. Furthermore, if the circumstances are deemed serious, the case will be referred to judicial authorities for investigation.
3. Should any information or document submitted by the test taker is false, he/she shall be forbidden from taking the test, have his/her offer rescinded, or be expelled from the University. Documents submitted by the test taker during registration and enrollment will not be returned. To verify the education background and/or credentials submitted by the test taker, the University may request that the test taker submit additional documents within a specified period of time. The test
