Departments	Bachelor	Master	Ph.D.	Explanation
Chinese Literature	v	v	x	1. The undergraduate program trains students in creative writing and the studies of Chinese literature, with dual emphasis on both classical and modern works as our major goals. Putting equal weight on studying and exercise, our students are keen in both theory and practice. 2. Meanwhile, our Master and Ph.D. programs focus solely on pure literature, such as prose, rhymed prose, poetry, ci (free verse) and drama. Moreover, we also give regular courses on classical Chinese literature, classical Chinese philosophy and Literature and History Reference...etc. In addition, courses about the integration of philology and information science are available for students who are interested. 3. Language Proficiency Documentation:            (1) Submission of Chinese Proficiency Test (TOCFL) certificate at level B1 or above, or equivalent to CEFR B1 or above for international standard Chinese language proficiency.            (2) Native Chinese speakers are exempt but need to provide relevant proof.            (3) Graduates from schools with Chinese as the language of instruction or previous degrees obtained in Chinese (including high school diplomas) should provide documentation from the school confirming the use of Chinese as the medium of instruction.

History	v	v	x	1. Our curriculum is diverse and comprehensive, covering both Western and Asian history as well as public history. We integrate courses in artificial intelligence, digital humanities, and information technology to expand students' learning opportunities. In addition to rigorous academic training, we provide practical experiences in public history through field research and internships with prominent cultural institutions. This blend of academic and practical experience allows students to effectively integrate their knowledge and skills, thereby enhancing their competitiveness in future careers. 2. Our faculty is both diverse and highly esteemed, actively engaging scholars from various disciplines to deliver instruction. We are committed to providing students with the most rigorous and comprehensive training available. 3. Please write an autobiography of up to 1,000 words, including a description of your personal educational experience. 4. Language Proficiency Documentation:  (1) Submission of Chinese Proficiency Test (TOCFL) certificate at level B1 or above, or equivalent to CEFR B1 or above for international standard Chinese language proficiency.
